A PEACEMAKER SHOT.

A Colored Man Breetves Two Bullets for Interfering.

Last night while trying to act as peacemaker and separate two men who were engaged in a fight in Capitol alley. Henry Beverly, colored, had two tuilets lodged in him, one of which may result in his death. Beverly states that when he undertook to separate the men one of them, who was unknown to him, turned and fired at him. He started to run and the man fired a sec-ord shot. Beverly fell in the alley where Officers Smith and Sanford found him. Those gathered about dealed any knowledge of the anooting.

The wounded man was taken to the Fourth Precinct station, where it was found that one ball had entered the right aboutder and the other the left breast. He was immediately taken to Providence Hospital, where his wounds

Beverly describes his assallant as a short, heavy set negro, with club feet, and Georce Carter, alias Jesse James, has been arrested as answering to this description. Beverly could not posi-tively identify him as the man.

The Patrol System In Georgelown, Engineer Commissioner Robert, in a conversation to-day with Mr. A. H. Chapman, general manager of the Municipal Signal Company of Boston, Mass., and Major of Police Moore, said that he had decided to give Georgetown fire-alarm system that could be pro-vided. Colonel Robert approved the is hopes that the team may be improved selection made by Captain Rossell on sufficiently to play better half. his recent tour in several of the leading cities—the Municipal Signal Company's system. Their bid was $5,600, and that of the Gamewell Company $3,150. The official award of the contract was made this morning by Captain Rossell. The apparatus will be ready for adjustment operation in about two weeks. The Municipal system is in operation in Boston, Providence, R. I.; Fall River, Mass.; Newark, N. J., and other smaller towns. The company has just received contracts for Minneapolis and San

THE DAILY CRITIC BASEBALL GOSSIP

THE SENATORS BADLY BEATEN BY BALTIMORE VESTERDAY.

DANIELS' GURVES EASILY SOLVED.

The Team Opens at Atlantic Park This Afternoon.... It Needs Some New Pitchers.

The Washington aggregation, or sguravation," as it has been not captly called, dropped another game t the Ralitmore team yesterday, prinipally through the inability of Daniels deceive the heavy hitting Orioles. They caught the hang of his delivery in the winth inning and made a brace of une, which was further increased in te following fining. If the game hall ease! then the score would have been respectable, but the men whom Barnle believes to be the coming champlons, without any regard for the tender feelings of Daniels and the eight other individuals who represent this city, went in and batted the ball all over the field in the ninth loning. Nine hits were made, two of them triples and the weary Sen ators edified the crowd with exhibitions of running. Nine runs were made through this bat-ting and the errors that Sullivan's men plied up. But errors counted for very little in that game, for most of the runs were earned.

The Baltimores made 20 hits, with a total of 27 bases, while the Washing tons only made 9 hits, with a total of 15 bases. The local team put in some excellent work in increasing the size of its error column, and pretty nearly every man on the team had a hand

The only satisfaction that Washington enthusiasts can get out of the game is the fact that the boys are keeping up their hitting. That is the only morsel of comfort that can be had.

THRY ARE HOME. The Washington team is at home gain. It sounds strange that it should arrive home safe and sound after the arduous campaign in which it has engaged during the past three weeks, but, nevertheless, it is true. It is scheduled to play at Atlantic park this afternoon against the Baltimores, and Phillips will pitch for the local team. Baker will do the honors for the Orioles, and a good g) me ought to result.

Three games are scheduled between the Baltimores and Washingtons, and as we have the game in our "slaughter pen," as Ted Sullivan recently called it, there ought to be some lively ball playing done. The team has got to re-trieve its lost laurels and it don't want to be long in setting about dolog it. There is no reason in the world why the men should not play better and winning ball, and, if they cannot do it, hen others should be obtained who can.

The team, if it is to draw, must be made a winning one, and it cannot be strenghtened too soon. What the club ems to need now more than anything else is a couple of good pitchers. At present Philips is the only one on whom any dependence can be placed. Daniels has not demonstrated his worth as yet. In both games against the Baltimores he was literally slaughterrd. Underwood has not done much better, and in this respect the team is pretty badly off. Sullivan wants tygo on another gunning expedition, and at once, and secure a couple of good men, or else the team will be so far behind that it will not be able to get out of the

The record made on the trip is a shameful one. The club only won three games while it was away and lost four teen. It went on the trip in first place, with a good lead, and it returns in sixth It can hardly be dislodged from the best and highest-priced police and that position by any club behind it for fire-alarm system that could be pro a few weeks yet, and in that time there

> A BROTHERHOOD VICTORY. The Brotherhood club in Pittsburg has driven the League team in that dily to the wail, and the Leaguers are now making arrangements to transfer its games. This was brought about by the reduction in the admission price the Brotherhood club made early in the season. Neither club made a cent, and only a few headers. only a few hundred people witnessed the games. But just as soon as the League quit the Interest in the game revived, and yesterday over 2,500 people saw the local team defeat the Chicagos.

This shows that, while there is no batement of interest in the sport, yet people cannot be induced to patroniz so long as two clubs are in the field. public, or rather a greater majority of it, is averse to taking sides on the question, and the patronage will be wall until it is determined one way o

ITS TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The National Riffes Celebrate the Event at Marshall Batt.

It was a red-letter day yesterday for hat erack military organization of Washington, the National Rifles, It was the tenth anniversary of their organization, and was celebrated with an excursion to Marshall Hall and a banquet. The steamer Macalester left her wharf at an early hour last evening with the woldler laidies on board and their invited guests and friends.

The committee of arrangements consisted of George W. Evans, chairman, Charles H. Grannis, R. B. Gettings, Lewis Holmes, M. J. Quinn, C. W. Brocks, W. M. McConibee, J. F. H. Blots, S. E. Tomiliason, B. T. Doyle, and W. K. Ellis.

Two long tables were spread beneath the trees and Captain J. F. Oyster made a brief speech, followed by Lieu-tenant George W. Evans, who read a most interesting history of the Rifles, beginning with the formation of the old organization in 1859. Commissioner cold organization in 1859. Commissioner Douglass responded to the toast, "The President of the United States;" Commissioner Hime. "The National Capital;" Mr. E. G. Davis responded for the honorary members, Mr. Noble D. Larner the veterans, Mr. B. T. Doyle recited a poem, "The Day We Celebrate," and Lieutenans Evans read a number of letters from members and others who could not be present. On the return trip appreciative resolutions were passed by the honorary members, framed by a committee consisting of William G. Moore, Noble D. Larner, R. A. Fish and George Gibson.
